PCC Update...

The PCC met this week (with a very full agenda).

Vacancy: A big 'thank you' to everyone who prayed on Sunday for Andrew and Ian's meeting with the Bishop. And well done to them both for just getting there as the weather was certainly not helping cross Solent travel! The meeting was open and positive and we are now awaiting to hear further from Bishop Christopher as to the next steps.

We are not expecting an immediate response as on Wednesday the Bishop left for a pilgrimage with our Archdeacon and a group of Curates to Israel. Please pray that the Lord will bless all involved in this trip.

Christian Centre: As part of our ongoing improvement work to the Christian Centre the PCC have agreed to replace the main doors and the windows in the Centre with blue composite double doors and white upvc double glazed windows▲

Meals for the Homeless

Our Thursday evening meals for the homeless in the Christian Centre have been going well. Working with the Salvation Army we have been able to offer food and fellowship for between 7 and 9 people each week.

We are now looking to draw up a rota of helpers. If you have previously indicated to Ian that you would like to help or are interested in helping but not involved so far please speak to him▲
